Fox Magic
by Beverly Brenna
illustrated by Miriam Körner

Fox Magic is an honest and compelling look at life from the perspective of twelve-year-old Chance Devlin. Two of her friends have committed suicide and as she struggles with her loss, she wonders if following them is the best remedy for her pain. A connection to a mysterious red fox named Janet Johnson helps her come to terms with the past, finding her courage in the power of dreams.

A timely, engaging read that will help open frank discussion with family and friends, at home or in the classroom. Complete with an information package by Tim Claypool Ph.D., R.D. Psych., with current references, and author interview.

Beverley Brenna is author of the award-winning Wild Orchid series. She teaches at the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon. Spot illustrations are by Miriam Körner, author of Yellow Dog.
